DESCRIPTION/OPTIONS: Meet the 2024 GMC Terrain AT4—the adventure-ready family SUV that’s built for grocery runs, road trips, and everything in between. Rugged on the outside and comfy on the inside, it fits right in whether you’re cruising through the school pickup lane or heading out for a weekend in the woods. Step inside and you’re greeted by a cabin designed for maximum family happiness. The panoramic sunroof lets sunlight (or starlight!) pour in, giving everyone the best seat in the house. Chilly mornings? No problem—heated front seats and a heated steering wheel keep the driver and passengers toasty warm, making winter errands feel almost... enjoyable. And when it comes to entertainment, the available Bose premium sound system turns every drive into a concert, keeping the whole crew singing, dancing, and occasionally arguing over who gets to pick the playlist. With roomy seating, plenty of cargo space for sports gear or camping adventures, and the AT4’s confident capability, the Terrain is ready for whatever your family throws its way. All-wheel drive and off-road-inspired upgrades help you tackle dirt roads, snowy days, and spontaneous “let’s go explore” moments with ease.
